APPLICATION PROCESS

Please submit 4 electronic images (3 art images and 1 booth image) via email to submission@leoarts.org. Only email files are accepted. Do NOT send CD or hard copy.

Previous year award winners do not need to pay the jury fee for the following year.

Include 2 separate checks payable to Leo Cedarville Foundation: $25 for the jury fee (non-refundable) and $95 for the booth.

Artists may only exhibit artwork that reflects the quality and craftsmanship of the pieces presented with their applications and is specific to the categories indicated on their applications and artwork that clearly relates to the body of work selected during the jury process. Artwork that is inconsistent with the quality and craftsmanship expected is subject to rejection by AATR.

PLEASE NOTE: If you would like to sell jewelry in your booth and it is not the primary medium in which you are accepted (for example you are juried in clay functional and you would also like to sell clay pendants), you must also apply in the jewelry category and the judges will decide if your jewelry can be included.

Exhibitors must supply their own tents & displays. The Leo Cedarville Foundation and the Town of Leo-Cedarville employees and their volunteers assume no responsibility for displays or damage due to theft or other loss.

All accepted artists must be present with and exhibit their work during all hours of the fair.
